

WoundedWarHeroes.Org Calendar of Events Note:

All events are listed and updated monthly for 2016, and might have some additions, changes, or deleted events made without notice.

All Postings, to the calendar, are made each week... However, if your Internet Browser is showing no changes for the week, please refresh your browser page with tapping the "F5" key once. This should refresh the page to the current events. If this does not refresh the page, then hold down the "CTRL" key (Cmd Key on Mac) and tapping the "F5" key once, then releasing both, will reload the complete page to the new content.

This PDF file is provided for some computers that might not show a print function on the calendar or the older computers might not have enough resources to display correctly the agenda events.

This PDF file is for versions 6.0 and above. If you have a previous version of Adobe PDF Reader 6.0 or below (v3.0-v4.0-v5.0), Please update your file, if your computer will upgrade. Some older computers will not have the resources to upgrade. If you are experiencing this problem, please email: webmaster@WoundedWarHeroes.Org and in the subject line state "send your computer operation version (XP, Win 7, Other)" and in the body of the email, state your concerns of the email, and an older version will be sent to you.

Download current Adobe PDF Reader version 11.0.2 This is an official Adobe website and is safe and protected... All other websites may put you at risk.
